Garden at Nome City.

Friends of Pannel Garden, formerly captain of the Capitol police at Washington, have received letters from him recently telling of his arrival at Nome City, Alaska. On the vessel in which he made the voyage to the frozen North were two cases of smallpox.

Many Strangers in the City.

Three sections over the Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling brought 1,142 strangers in the city from Cleveland and Lorain yesterday. Many of them went to Wheeling park and a large number went to Mount Zion, Wheeling's hill-top resort. They returned on late trains last evening.

New Trial Denied.

Saturday in the Marshall county circuit court, at Moundsville, Judge Melvin denied the motion made by the attorneys of W. J. Cotts, of this city, for a new trial, and Cotts was thereupon sentenced to serve a term of three years in the penitentiary. There was a stay of execution pending an appeal to the state supreme court of appeals.

Held for Grand Jury.

The boys, Harding and Francis, were given a hearing before Squire Greer Saturday on the charge of theft from the store of F. M. Work & Co., on the South Side, and were held for the criminal court grand jury in default of bail. The other boy, Krieter, was released, there being an insufficiency of evidence against him.

Would Not Prosecute.

"Rhea," an inmate of Ida Robinson's house of ill fame, was arrested by the police on the charge of relieving an East End citizen of $50. The victim demanded to prosecute, owing to the publicity that would be involved. The chief then decided to release the girl upon condition that she leave the city.

On a Serious Charge.

Saturday night, on warrants sworn out before Squire Greer, four young men, James McNamara, Teddy Nieman, Michael Dewire and Lawrence Stein, were arrested on complaint of Ferdinand Kehr, on the allegation that they assaulted his daughter, Amelia Kehr, aged 16 years. The men were jailed, and will be given a hearing to-day.

In Time of Need.

For all that Wheeling papers have but little in common, yet the usual magnanimous spirit existing in the newspaper fraternity was exemplified yesterday when the Intelligencer's press broke down and the Register immediately offered its press for the use of its opponent. The News came forward also and to-day's issue was run off on the press of that paper—Martin's Ferry Times.

"Dinna Forget."

The Scottish Thistle Society will hold a very important meeting at McLain's hall to-night and every member is requested to be present. The purpose of the meeting is to perfect arrangements for the society's picnic, which is to take place at Cresap's Grove in a few weeks. The exact date has not been set, owing to the uncertainty of the time when the new steamer City of Wheeling will be ready to carry them. While the members "dinna ken" the exact date, they are selling lots of tickets for the affair, and it promises to be a great success.

Labor Day.

The committees of the Ohio Valley Trades and Labor Assembly are preparing for a greater celebration of Labor Day than ever before, and for the first time the celebration occurs on the real Labor Day—Nation Labor Day, the first Monday in September, the 4th. Heretofore the assembly's celebration has occurred on the last Saturday in August. At all the Amalgamated mills there is an agreement that they shall close down, and the assembly will endeavor to have every establishment in the city follow suit. Secretary Frank D. Thomas, of the assembly, is getting out a line souvenir programme.

DIAMOND THIEF IS CAPTURED.

The Fellow Who Got Away With Several Hundred Dollars' Worth of Jewelry From

THE DILLON-HANCHER STORE

Captured Yesterday by the Point Pleasant Police—To be Returned to Wheeling.

Several weeks ago, as readers of the papers will remember, an unknown thief forced an entrance into the Dillon, Hancher & Co. jewelry store, in this city, and got away with several hundred dollars worth of jewelry. Since then the police department has been working hard to effect the capture of the thief, but without success, and finally the firm came to the conclusion that he would not be discovered, and advertised in the Wheeling papers that they would consent to take the goods back without prosecution.

Quite unexpectedly, however, the thief has been captured, and, of course, the firm will prosecute the fellow to the extent of the law. News of the capture came last night in a telegram from the Point Pleasant, W. Va., police, stating that a white man had been taken into custody there, who had in his possession some of the goods taken from the Dillon, Hancher & Co. store, including several ladies' birthday rings, plain gold rings, signet rings, three ladies' gold watches, scarf pins, bracelets, together with a razor and a revolver.

Although the man is wanted in several other cities, on similar charges, the Point Pleasant people have agreed to hand the man (whose name was not given) over to the Wheeling police, and Chief Clemans will go to Point Pleasant this morning, and return to-night with him.

Three men were supposed to have been implicated in the robbery, but apparently the man with the "booty" has been captured at Point Pleasant.

BY PERSONS UNKNOWN

Coroner's Jury Finds That S. Conwell Came to His Death.

Saturday evening a coroner's jury, presided over by County Coroner Schultze, held an investigation into the cause of the death of Robert S. Well, who was run down by a horse and buggy driven by unknown persons, near the entrance of Wheeling park, a week ago. A number of witnesses were examined, including Squire Greer, who described two young men, driving a buggy recklessly that evening along the pike. None of the witnesses could identify the fellows, and the jury brought in a verdict that Conwell came to his death by being run down by a buggy driven by persons unknown. The police have a clue, and an arrest is expected shortly.

St. Alphonsus Outing.

The annual outing and picnic of the St. Alphonsus Society will be given at Mount Zion, to-day, and, with favorable weather, one of the largest outings of the year is looked for. The festivities will take up nearly the entire day, and they will begin with the street parade at 5 o'clock this morning. The parade will consist of the members of the St. Alphonsus Society, headed by the Grand Opera House band, and after traversing the principal streets, it will wind up at the park incline. Dinner and supper will be served by ladies of the congregation, and they have spared no pains to put forth an appealing and satisfying spread. At the park the day's exercises, which will continue until midnight, will consist of the usual contests, bowling, dancing and other picnic features, and the affair will be enjoyed by the proverbial large crowd at affairs given under these auspices.
